Cemeteries of London

At night they would go walking & til the breaking of the day,
The morning is for sleeping&hellip;
Through the dark streets they go searching to seek God in their own way,
Save the nighttime for your weeping&hellip;
Your weeping&hellip;

Singing la lalalala la lé&hellip;
And the night over London rang.
So we rode down to the river where the toiling ghosts strain for their curses to be broken&hellip;
We&rsquo;d go underneath the arches where the witches are in there saying
There are ghost towns in the ocean&hellip;
The ocean&hellip;
Singing la lalalala la lé&hellip;
And the night over London rang.

God is in the houses and God is in my head&hellip; and all the cemeteries in London&hellip;
I see God come in my garden, but I don&rsquo;t know what he said,
For my heart, it wasn&rsquo;t open&hellip;
Not open&hellip;

Singing la lalalala la lé&hellip;
and the night over London rang.
Singing la lalalala la lé&hellip;
There's no light over London today.
